Acts

Taken Up Into Heaven

my former book, Theophilus, I wrote out all that Jesus began to do and to teach until the day he was taken up to heaven, giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. ³After his ascension he showed himself to these men and gave convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. While he was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my spread among you. For I have promised that I will send you what my Father has promised. And I have said to you: 'You will not be left orphaned; for I will come and dwell with you.' ²⁴This is the disciple who testified that his testimony is true. ²⁵Jesus did many other things as well, which were not written down in this book. These things were done so that everyone who believes in him may have room for the books that would be written.

of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will return in the same way you have seen him go into heaven."

Matthias Chosen to Replace Judas

¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem to a hill called the Mount of Olives, a Sabbath day's walk from the city. ¹³When they went upstairs to the room where they were staying, those present were James and Andrew; Philip; Tholomew and Mat-
